

A story about the life of a 1916 Rush City Mail Carrier, Elmer Lee Robinson and his wife, Jesse Blanche Emanuelson and their seven children

The NCHS is capturing unique stories from our seasoned community members. Deb Dahlberg sits down with mother-in-law, Arlene Robinson Dahlberg to reminisce about growing up in Rush City and her family life during the early to mid 1900's. Edna Spedevick, Rush City library assistant, Jana Masee, Rush City Post Master helped gather information prior to Arlene's birth.

Deb Dahlberg will give a presentation through the eyes of Arlene, Elmer and Jesse's fourth child. Arlene was born in 1928 and has amazing and fond memories of her family.

Program at 7PM on Tuesday, May 7th at the
Rushseba Town Hall

Jesse Blanche Emanuelson and Elmer
Lee Robinson in the winter of 1916